Petersbourg, January 5.

IT is now assured that the Duke of Brunswick with his Dutchess and Children are actually at Riga; that they have been there some Days, and are lodged in the Commandant's House in the Cittadel. It is also added, that they are to remain there till the Duke of Holstein's Arrival, who is expected here in the Course of this Month. Her Majesty proposes, as we hear, to take that Prince along with her to Moscow, for which Place she designs to set out the Beginning of March; and an Edict was published Yesterday for her Coronation the latter End of April, without naming the Day, tho' the Thursday after Easter is thought to be intended for that Ceremony. The Chevalier Crepi arrived here from the Swedish Army the 2d in the Evening, and is to be dispatched back the Day after To-morrow. Yesterday being the Prince of Hesse Hombourg's Birth-Day, her Majesty made him a Present of a Diamond Sword, and did him the Honour to sup at his House, which joyns to the Palace and has a Communication with it. The Privy Counsellor Nepluef, who had been sent for out of the Ukraine, has been at Court, but was not admitted to her Majesty's Presence, and forbid to appear there any more; he has since kept his House. The Guards have been taken away from 10 or 12 of those who were under Arrest; amongst whom were two of the Streschneffs, Count Osterman's Brothers-in-Law, but they are none of them yet allow'd to go Abroad. The Committee is so very assiduous in the Examination of the State Prisoners, that it is expected their Business will be over by the End of this Week, and that the Sentence will be published immediately after.

Dantzick, Jan. 24. On the 22d Instant arrived here the Duke of Holstein Gottorp, with his Attendants; and Yesterday in the Evening he proceeded on his Journey for Petersbourg.

Berlin, Jan. 29, N. S. We are informed here, that the King of Prussia arrived at Glatz on the 24th Instant.

Naples, Jan. 9, N. S. The two Ships of War St. Philip and Parthenope having been thought exposed to some Danger by lying in this Road, have been ordered to remove to the Port of Baja: Great Part of the Ammunition, &c. they had taken on board, has been shifted into four Vessels, and the whole Convoy consists of 23 Transports, which by contrary Winds remains still at Baja. On the 1st Instant the Duke di Castropignano, who some few Days ago set out hence with the General Officers to the Army on the Confines of the Abruzzo, returned hither from Orbitello, to give an Account to the King of the Conference he had there with M. de Montemar, and on the 2d a Courier was dispatched to his Excellency, 'tis said, with Notice of the Orders sent by the King to his Troops to begin their March from the Confines of the Abruzzo through the Ecclesiastical State in order to join the Spanish Troops. M. de Montemar is daily expected here, for whom an Apartment is preparing at the Secretary of State's Palace. On the 29th past Prince Ottajano de Medici's Valet de Chambre, who brought Notice to the Court of the Demand of the Jewels of the Medici Family, &c. made on the Part of the Great Duke of Tuscany to the Electress Dowager Palatine, set out from hence on his Return to Florence, with Answer, that the necessary Representations had been sent thereupon to the Court of Spain.

Rome, Jan. 13. On the 20th past Cardinal Alexander Albani had an Audience of the Pope, in which he presented to him a Manifesto, setting forth the Pretensions the King of Sardinia has on the State of Milan. On the 26th Cardinal Acquaviva had a long private Audience of the Pope upon the Dispatches he had received from his Court by a Cabinet Courier, relating to the Passage of the Spanish Troops through the Ecclesiastical State. The same Day Count Ferretti returned hither from Orbitello, with the Plan he had regulated with M. de Montemar concerning the said Passage; and on the 1st Instant, in Consequence thereof and the Pope's Instructions, M. Ferretti, attended by other Commissaries, set out from hence to prepare the necessary Etapes upon the Road. On the 3d One hundred Mules arrived here from Naples on their Way to the Spanish Army at Orbitello, to conduct the Train of Field Pieces.

Florence, Jan. 16. On the 30th past Prince Craon dispatched a Courier to the Great Duke, by whom the Electress Dowager Palatine sent her Answer to his Royal Highness concerning the Demand that was made to her of the Jewels by the two Officers of the Life and Swiss Guards. The same Day M. Velluti and Marroni, the two Tuscan Commissaries appointed by the Regency to attend on M. de Montemar, returned hither from Orbitello to acquaint the Government with the Conference they had with the said General: They were both dismissed, and ordered to repair to their respective Governments of Lunigiana and Volterra, where they accordingly proceeded on the 2d Instant. On the 1st M. de Richecourt returned hither from Padua, and on the 2d he had Audience of the Electress Dowager Palatine: He was complimented on his Arrival by the Counsellors of the Regency, by the Ministers, and Nobility; and on the 11th and 12th Instant assisted at the Councils of Regency and Finances as usual. In the last Week, by Order from the Great Duke, the Payment of Pensions was suspended, which occasions great Discontent in the Country; and the Treasury has also by Directions of his Royal Highness been removed to Leghorn. On the 10th an Express arrived here from the Governor of Grosseto to the Secretary at War, with Notice, that the Spanish Troops had begun to march from Orbitello to the Ecclesiastical State on the 8th Instant. Many Deserters of the said Troops daily arrive here, who are inlisted in the Great Duke's Service. A Detachment of 800 Men out of the Regiment of Pandolfini's Militia, is ordered to Leghorn to replace the Detachment which is to be sent to Porto Ferraio to relieve those of Wallis's Regiment, whom the Governor of Milan has required to join their Regiment in Lombardy, and who had hitherto pulled as if in the Great Duke's Service.
